

Rules of Effective Spiritual Reminiscing

- Asking questions that elicit details about the past event
- Affirming the child's contributions to the conversation
- Offering words to describe how parent and child were feeling
- Pointing out indicators of those feelings (smile, laughter, big eyes)
- Sharing possible interpretations for why the child experienced certain feelings
- Suggesting alternative responses